original and selected, by Wm. B. Bradbury, and C. W. Sanders. The attention of Teachers is particularly requested to the following notices, just received by the pub-lishers:

New York, October 25, 1841.

Messrs, Dayron & Sarrox—Gendemen—I have examined your valuable little musical publication," The Young Choir," and feel gratified to be able to express my raconditional approbation of the same. It is just the thing and extensively patronized.

Lam respectfully yours,
S. B. POND.

Late vocal Leader of the N. Y. Sacred Music Society.

Messrs. Dayton & Saxton—I have received the copy of "The Young Choir," by W. 6. Bradbury and C. W. Sanders, and I have examined it thoroughly and with great pleasure. The music is chaste and simple, two great excellences in a musical work. The arrangement is well designed and executed, and I know of no work of the kind better calculated to do good. The work also contains mough of the "Elements of music," to answer all purposes for youth.

ses for yourn.

I doubt not but it will afford satisfaction to schools for children and youth, and I kope it will obtain a general use.
